III. Activities and services rendered to foreign principals.

For the Japanese Government, through the Embassy of Japan at Washington, D. C.

1. Assistance to Educators

Registrant provided advice and resource materials to educators in various parts of the U.S. who were staging teacher workshops involving teaching about Japan and global perspectives.

2. Advice to the Japanese Government

Meetings were held in Washington, D.C. and Tokyo by Registrant and various officials of the Embassy and the Foreign Ministry of Japan to discuss projects for on-going and future public relations activities.

3. Participation in annual meeting of the National Council for the Social Studies

Registrant organized a "Japan Hospitality Suite" at the 67th annual meeting of the National Council for the Social Studies, held in November in Dallas, and distributed educational materials written and printed in Japan to the educators, free of charge.

For the Japan Foundation

Registrant organized judging of applications for the 1987 NCSS/Japan Foundation Japan Study Tour in August, handled notification of winners and made arrangements for travel to Japan for fifteen social studies educators. The trip to Japan took place in October. The Registrant is handling follow-up coordination of the educators' teaching activities, development of curriculum materials on Japan, etc.

For Japan Air Lines Co., Ltd.

Registrant advised officials of JAL on promotional and publicity programs and periodically met with executives of the company in their New York headquarters and with the staff in Tokyo.

For the Japanese Government, through the Consulate General of Japan at San Francisco

1. Assistance in arranging speaking engagements for Consul General

Registrant assisted in arranging speaking engagements for the Consul General before various civic and business groups on the status of the U.S.-Japanese relationship and the Japanese perspective of that relationship. These speeches have been and will be made in Northern California, Nevada, Utah and Colorado.

2. Advice, Counsel and General Assistance

Periodic meetings with officials of the Consulate General of Japan were held to give advice and counsel on various projects and activities undertaken by the Consulate General, such as press conferences.

For the Japan Institute for Social and Economic Affairs

1. Registrant began planning details of the 1988 Keizai Koho Center Fellowship program, publicizing the study travel opportunity through various state, regional and local teacher publications, distributing printed announcements and criteria, and answering myriad inquiries from social studies educators across the United States and Canada.
2. Registrant made travel arrangements for five U.S. Business School Deans who had been invited to visit Japan as guests of the Japan Institute for Social and Economic Affairs in July. We coordinated their requests for specific interviews and activities, and conducted a briefing in San Francisco prior to the Deans' departure for Tokyo.
